Features of the Virtual School Schedule

- Synchronous instruction is delivered during the first 50 minutes of the 90-minute block.
- A day/B day schedule for classes
- During independent work time, students have the opportunity to ask individual questions and/or receive targeted small group support, teacher is available to facilitate questions and provide feedback to students, monitor practice – While teachers will be providing 50 minutes of daily synchronous instruction, the expectation is that all students will have an opportunity to ask questions and receive support during independent work time through daily opportunities. Teachers will also give students an opportunity to move and take a screen break.
- Asynchronous learning and small group instruction take place on Wednesday mornings and can include targeted student support and flexible groupings of students who need assistance, additional resources for organizational skills, or counseling support.
- Teachers attend meetings and professional development Wednesday afternoons while students work independently.
- Counseling hours are staggered to ensure that the entire student day is covered.
- Lunch is one hour long enabling time off from the screen and a chance to move.
